HBO Game of Thrones

Tourism is a key driver of Belfast's and Northern Ireland's economy. Since 2012, the now iconic landmark Titanic Belfast, which is adjacent to the Plater's Yard site, has attracted over 5 million visitors from across 145 countries, earning it the prestigious accolade of World's Leading Tourist Attraction 2016 at the World Travel Awards, as well as Ireland's first ever 5 star graded visitor experience.

Other heritage attractions within Titanic Quarter include Titanic Slipways, Thompson Dry Dock, SS Nomadic, HMS Caroline and the Great Light. Titanic Slipways have been established as one of Belfast's most sought after outdoor venues hosting events for MTV, BBC and the Giro d'Italia.

The Titanic Exhibition Centre hosts major conferences, sporting and lifestyle events with attendances of up to 16,000 per event. Attracting 1 million visitors annually, Titanic Quarter has acquired the status as a premier global destination for leisure and business tourism.

The Odyssey Complex, which consists of the SSE Arena (11,000 capacity), Odyssey Pavilion and W5 is a large sports and entertainment centre situated within Titanic Quarter. It is a 2 minute walk from the Plater's Yard site and had a total footfall in 2017 of 2.6 million. The complex is currently undergoing redevelopment.

Titanic Hotel

RESIDENTIAL

Belfast is a city experiencing expansion and regeneration. As the capital of Northern Ireland and the second largest city on the island of Ireland, Belfast has a population of 340,000 and Belfast City Council estimates there will be an additional 66,000 people living in the city over the next 20 years – a growth rate of 0.9% p.a. Titanic Quarter has a significant role to play in future growth.

The Belfast workforce is expected to increase by 2,210 people per year over the next 20 years- a growth rate of 0.8% p.a. The workforce in Belfast is young, with 42% of people living in the city aged under 30 years, suggesting a high proportion of young professionals are being attracted to the area.

Titanic Quarter is already established as one of Belfast's most prestigious residential developments in Belfast City Centre and is home to over 1,000 residents.
